MILITARY GOVERNMENT OF SANTO DOMINGO.

Executive Order No. 591.

O. G. No. 3185.

By virtue of the powers vested in the Military Government of Santo Domingo, the following Executive Order is dictated and promulgated:

ARTICLE 1. Executive Orders number 572 and 573 are hereby revoked.

ARTICLE 2. In order to prevent disturbance of public order, all persons are forbidden to publish articles in magazines, newspapers, pamphlets, periodicals, hand bills, publications, or to make speeches of the following nature:

(a) Those which teach doctrines of anarchy, which under the present circumstances prevailing in the Republic may lead to unrest and disorder.

(b) Those which teach doctrines or practices contrary to public morals as understood by all civilized nations.

ARTICLE 3. Violations of the above prohibitions shall be considered an offense against the Government and the offenders shall be subject to trial and punishment. The authors of the speech or speechs or articles, the publisher thereof and all persons, knowingly, aiding or abetting the writing, delivery or publication thereof, shall be considered as parties to the offense and punishable therefor, and this shall be taken to include all persons responsible for or having control over the magazine, periodical, newspaper, or other publication in which the articles appear, or over the place or hall in which speeches shall be made.

ARTICLE 4. In issuing this Executive Order, I call upon the highest patriotism and deep devotion to the National well-being that is in the heart of all loyal citizens of the Dominican Republic to assist the Government of the United States and the officials of the Military Government at this crucial time in the efforts to maintain that public order within the Dominican Republic which is essential to the evident desire of the United States to achieve its intentions as expressed in the proclamation of December 23, 1920.

ARTICLE 5. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this law are hereby repealed.

THOMAS SNOWDEN,
Rear-Admiral, United States Navy,
Military Governor of Santo Domingo.

MILITARY GOVERNMENT OF SANTO DOMINGO.
Executive Order No. 592.
O. G. No. 3189.

Amending Provisional Law of Appointments.

By virtue of the powers vested in the Military Government of Santo Domingo, the following Executive Order is hereby promulgated:

Article 1. Article 9 of Executive Order No. 450 is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Article 9. Unless otherwise specifically provided by Law, a newly appointed employee shall be entitled to receive the salary fixed by the appointing power, not to exceed the salary fixed by the Budget for the position held, beginning with the date upon which he actually took charge of his position and commence the performance of his duties, if such date is not prior to the effective date stated in his appointment, and the appointment shall remain in force until the holder thereof is relieved or removed by the appointing authority. It shall not be necessary to issue new appointments at the beginning of a calendar year except insofar as the provisions of a new Budget require it."

Article 2. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this order, are hereby repealed.

THOMAS SNOWDEN,
Rear-Admiral, United States Navy,
Military Governor of Santo Domingo.
