CHAPTER V, ARTICLE 109.

Item: Gastos Imprevistos de la Secretaria $372.00

THOMAS SNOWDEN,
Rear-Admiral, U. S. Navy,
Military Governor of Santo Domingo.

Santo Domingo City, D. R.,
February 6, 1920.

MILITARY GOVERNMENT OF SANTO DOMINGO.

Executive Order No. 394.

WHEREAS: The supply of meat for consumption in the Dominican Republic is not more than sufficient for the needs of the Dominican people,

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the powers vested in the Military Government, the following Order is dictated and promulgated:

I. From the date of this Order, it shall be unlawful to export, or offer for export, from the Dominican Republic, beef cattle, hogs, sheep, goats, poultry, eggs, or any edible animal or bird whatsoever, or the meat thereof, unless permission therefor is first obtained in writing from the Secretary of Agriculture and Immigration.

II. Any person who violates the provisions of this Order shall be considered guilty of a violation of Law, and shall, upon conviction, be subject to correctional punishment in the corresponding tribunal, and shall suffer a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10), nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), or imprisonment for not less than ten days nor more than three months for each offense, or both such fine and imprisonment may be imposed at the discretion of the court; and the unlawful exportation of each animal or bird, or portion thereof, shall constitute a separate offense.

III. All Laws or parts of Laws inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

THOMAS SNOWDEN,
Rear-Admiral, U. S. Navy,
Military Governor of Santo Domingo.

Santo Domingo City, D. R.,
