MILITARY GOVERNMENT OF SANTO DOMINGO.

Executive Order No. 418.

WHEREAS: It has been clearly demonstrated to the Military Government that the present number of graduate pharmacists in this country is inadequate to comply with the requirements of the Ley de Sanidad and to fill the needs of the country; and,

WHEREAS: It has been clearly demonstrated that the present method of supplying such pharmacists in this country is inadequate to fill the immediate needs of the country; and,

WHEREAS: These necessities have been brought to the attention of the Military Government by various pharmacists of the country together with an urgent request for relief;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the powers vested in the Military Government of Santo Domingo, the following Executive Order is hereby promulgated:

Art. 1. The Secretary of State for Sanitation and Beneficence is authorized to issue a certificate of sufficiency for the practice of pharmacy to any person who presents to him satisfactory proof of identity, good moral character, of being a graduate of a university, college or school of pharmacy in good standing, located in any foreign country or state, and of being lawfully licensed to practice pharmacy in any foreign country or state whose requirements for such license are at least equivalent to those of this country.

A university, college or school of pharmacy to be in good standing as required by this Article, shall be one which has a standard, for the degree in question, as high as that required by the Association of American Medical Colleges. No university, college or school will be considered which misrepresents its records, its clinical facilities, or as to its students or graduates.

Art. 2. The proofs required by the preceding article must be verified by a diplomatic or consular representative of the Dominican Republic in the country or state in which the applicant in question is licensed to practice.

Art. 3. The provisions of this Executive Order shall terminte on January 1, 1921,

PROVIDED, that the Executive Power, if in this discretion necessary, is authorized to extend the provisions of this Order, by resolution,

Art. 4. This Executive Order shall supersede all previous Laws or Executive Orders insofar as they conflict herewith.

THOMAS SNOWDEN,
Rear-Admiral, U. S. Navy,
Military Governor of Santo Domingo.
