MILITARY GOVERNMENT OF SANTO DOMINGO.

Executive Order No. 496.

Title: Amendment to "Ley de Loterías".
(Executive Orders 420 and 466).

By virtue of the powers vested in the Military Government of Santo Domingo, the following Order amending the "Ley de Loterías" (Executive Order No. 420, as amended by Executive Order No. 466) is hereby dictated and promulgated: The following articles are hereby added to the said Law:

"Article 30. In the event that it becomes necessary to revoke the permit granted to any person or persons to conduct a lottery in the Dominican Republic, the Executive Power may at its option continue the operation of the lottery through the agency of the Department of Hacienda y Comercio, which Department shall detail the necessary administrators and personnel to conduct the enterprise and shall be charged with its proper conduct, PROVIDED THAT, in such event, the provisión of Paragraph (a), Article 1, shall not be applicable, and that for the purposes of centralization of responsibility, the duties heretofore laid upon the Secretary of Interior and Police shall devolve upon the Secretary of Hacienda y Comercio during such period only as the lottery shall be conducted thorough the agency of the Department of Hacienda y Comercio. The net profits from the operation of the lottery shall accrue to and be deposited in the National Treasury.

"Article 31. It shall be illegal for any person to sell, or offer for sale, tickets or fractions of tickets of any lottery operated in the Dominican Republic for a greater amount than their nominal value, as is printed upon such tickets; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that nothing in this Article shal be held to apply to tickets which have drawn prizes in accordance with published lists corresponding to such tickets.

"Every person violating the provisions of this Article shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) nor more than one hundred dollars, ($100.00), or be imprisoned not less than ten days nor more than one month for each offense so committed...
