from Santo Domingo, Brigadier General Logan Feland, United States Marine Corps, is appointed Acting Military Governor of Santo Domingo.

THOMAS SNOWDEN,
Rear-Admiral, U. S. Navy,
Military Governor of Santo Domingo.

Santo Domingo, D. R.
July 3, 1920.

MILITARY GOVERNMENT OF SANTO DOMINGO.

Executive Order No. 513.

Amendment to Lottery Law.

In view of the fact that after an investigation under oath, it has been proven that the grantees of the privilege to carry on lotteries in Santo Domingo, in accordance with Executive Orders Nos. 420 and 446, did not proceed in good faith, but availed themselves of fraudulent means; and in view of the rights reserved in resolution of April 24, 1920, and Executive Order No. 492, as well as the nullity produced in each contract by reason of fraud and deceit;

The Military Government of Santo Domingo, by virtue of the powers vested therein, dictates and promulgates the following Executive Order:

1. The permission granted to Messrs. Manuel Matías Melendez and Federico García Godoy Jr., to carry on lotteries in the Dominican Republic, as well as the Resolution of April 24, 1920, by virtue of which they were granted said privilege, are hereby cancelled; and in accordance with the provisions of Executive Order No. 496, the Department of State of Finance and Commerce shall continue to control the lottery.

2. The tickets already issued for drawings to be held on the dates of July 11, 18, 25, and August 1, 1920, bearing the names of Melendez and Godoy, will be valid for said drawings.

LOGAN FELAND,
Brigadier-General, U. S. M. C.,
Acting Military Governor of Santo Domingo.
